Employment Application Personal Data Addendum

Please Read and Complete

The Federal Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994 bars from the insurance industry any individual who has been convicted of a criminal felony involving dishonesty or breach of trust, unless the individual has received, from an authorized insurance regulator, written consent to be so employed that specifically references the new law. In general, crimes of dishonesty or breach of trust would include those such as perjury, false statement, criminal fraud, embezzlement, forgery, false pretenses, and any other crimes which involve some elements of deceit, untruthfulness, or falsification.

Have you ever been convicted of such criminal felony involving dishonesty or breach of trust?

Yes No

Have you ever been convicted of a federal crime relating to insurance fraud?

Yes No

If you answered "yes" to either of the above questions, have you received, subsequent to such conviction, written consent from an authorized insurance regulator that you may be employed in the insurance industry, and will you produce a copy of such consent?

Yes No

I hereby affirm that my answers to the foregoing questions are true and correct.
